

The First Meeting

This is a crucial meeting. It is where the scene is set and the ground rules for the relationship are laid out.

Before the Meeting

Imagine you are planning the agenda for an initial mentoring meeting. What points and topics would you plan to discuss and clarify, so you had an agenda for the meeting that left nobody in any doubt by the end what the ground rules and the processes were, and what was going to happen?